

Ideology Quiz

-
- Which of these are statements are facts and which are ideological ideas (6)
    - All adults should work for a living
    - Politics is boring and should be left to other people
    - Men should hide their emotions
    - The nuclear family is the best family structure
    - People who break the law should always be punished
    - The most important thing is to have fun
  - Use textual examples to show how a media text:
    - reinforces dominant values (6)
    - questions dominant values (6)
    - actively challenges or subverts dominant values (6)
  - Identify how the narrative of a text you are familiar with creates an ideological resolution (6)
  - Identify how ideologies and values can be genre codes. Explain or provide an example. (6)
  - Give examples of what are called 'tabloid values'? (6)
  - Identify the ideologies that are communicated by a media text you are familiar with. Explain how these ideologies are created. Include some observations on the text's values on gender, race and sexuality where relevant. (8)

